

1 // Vernacular architecture documentation

Location// Documentation of Sankheda Village

(Wooden houses), Khetri Village (Stone houses) and Mandvi (Old city planning)

Purpose//

As part of architecture training tradition, it is mandatory for each student to manually document vernacular houses. Purpose is to learn indigenous construction techniques and incorporate learnings in studio projects.

Team// Prashant Rathod, Surabhi Kavalankar, Harsh Chauhan, Kajal Prajapati, Shaily Gandhi, Ekta Rakholiya

Colonial Architecture//

Haveli Architecture//

A "Haveli" is a traditional townhouse, mansion, manor house, palace or fort in the Indian subcontinent, usually built for members of the ruling King's court.

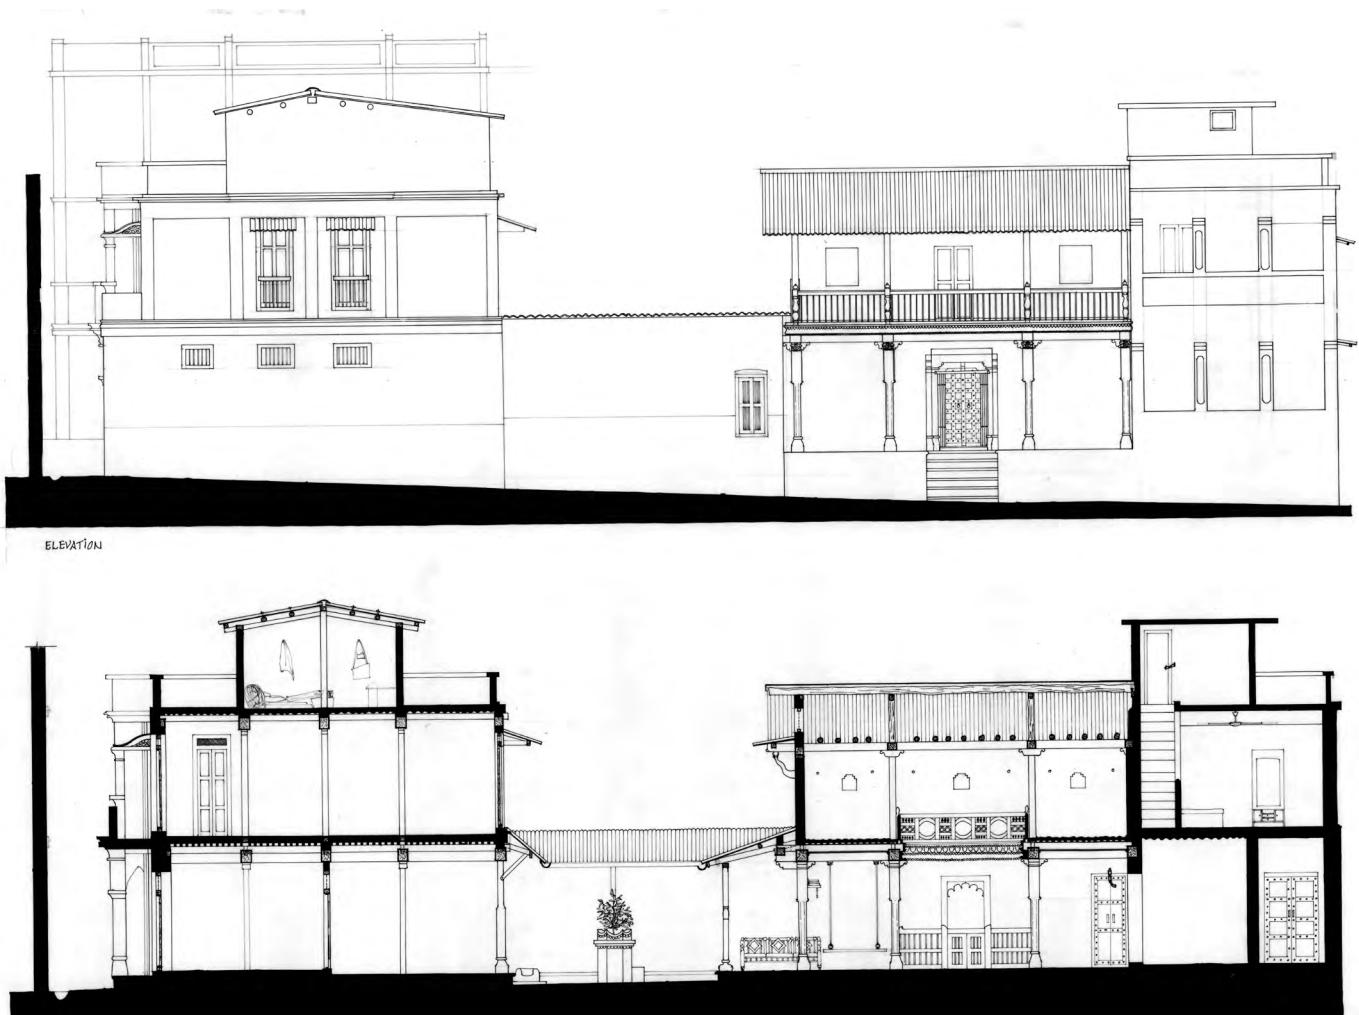

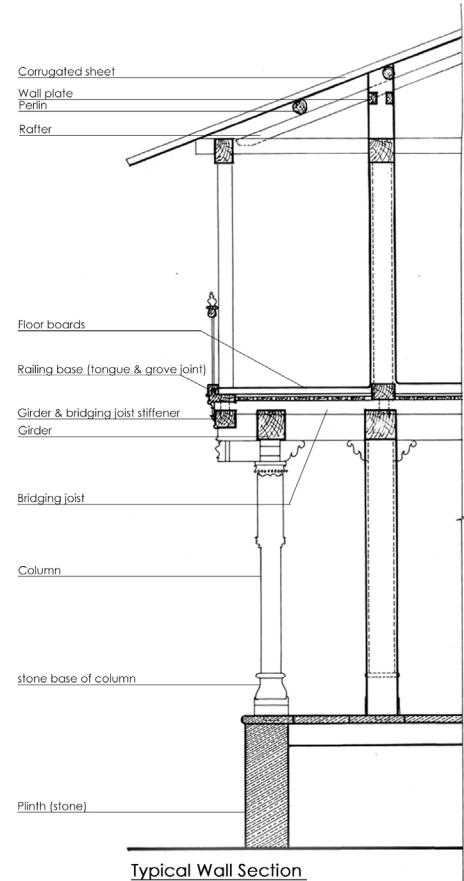

Documentation of Sand stone Haveli
in Khetri Village, Rajasthan (India)

Brick and wood Architecture//

Manual hand drafting technique used for documentation of temple house in Sankheda Village.

Documentation of Temple house in Sankheda Village, Gujarat (India)

2 // Sculptural exploration

Location// CEPT University, India

Purpose//

Visual storytelling and expanding subtle dialogue between people, spaces and built environment.

A broken pathway

"Guide me to the forest"

"Guide me to the forest"

"Guide me to the forest"

3 // Cost effective sustainable construction workshop
Location// Laurie baker center (India), Auroville (India)
Construction techniques// Bamboo construction
Filler slab, Rammed earth & Vault construction

Location// Auroville (India)

Construction techniques// Rammed earth & Vault construction

Location// Auroville (India)

Construction techniques// Rammed earth & Vault construction

Location// Lauri Baker Center (India)

Construction techniques// Dry Rubble foundation